The Greek words taken in their literal, gramamtical and proper meanings are intolerant of the papal interpretation. Mr. Johnson denied the right o efficacy of the auricular confession, and diculed that for failure to observe the achings of the church in this respect that anyone could be condemned to perdithion. "It is not strange that the people who confess thus do not grow in grace," "It is a mistaken idea that the priests confess to the bishop. The bishops confess to a priest, and so does the pope." The speaker held that few priests of experience really believe that they have power to absolve from sin, and deliberately teach a doctrine they do not believe. God alone can forgive sin.

JURY-GETTING A HARD MATTER

At Least it Has Been So in the Romney Murder Case.

NOT ONE YET SECURED.

Court Issues Another Special Venire Returnable This Afternoon-Those Examined This Morning.

No juror was secured in the Romney case at this morning's session of court and, from all appearances, there will be ione secured this afternoon for the eason that the last special venire of jurors issued on Thursday was exhausted this morning shortly after 11 o'clock and another special venire of 25 jurors noon at 3 o'clock. So most of the afternoon session will be taken up in the examination of the new jurors on their statutory qualifications, and it is doubtful if any success will be had in securing a juror this afternoon.

At the opening of court this morning, C. E. Bennett, Hiram Seal, David . Burrows, William Cutler, Thomas J. Bridwell, William R. Andrew and Arthur Le Davis were in the jury box, having been passed for cause by both the state and defense. Mr. Davis presented a physician's certificate to the effect that he was not physically able to sit on the jury, as his ailment required immediate medical attention. He was thereupon excused by the court. Charles C. Buckle and Ernest Langton were then called to the box, but were quickly challenged for cause by the defense and excused on the ground that they had formed an opinion in regard to the case which would require evidence to remove.
